★★★★☆ (102 reviews)

Saving Japan from total destruction at the hands of the King of Giants earns Jinwoo and Ahjin Guild world-wide recognition and a spot at the International Guild Conference. But heading to America means crossing paths with Dongsoo Hwang, who has a bone to pick with Jinwoo about the death of his brother—and isn't above using Jinho as bait!

Me and Other Bunnies

More Info Borrow

By Mo Willems. From Union Square Kids.

★★★★☆ (7 reviews)

Mo Willems, #1 New York Times bestselling, award-winning author-illustrator creates a hilarious picture book about bunnies.

There are ME bunnies.
There are YOU bunnies.
There are US bunnies . . . and WE bunnies . . . and THEM bunnies.

There are a lot of bunnies in Me and Other Bunnies.

Been Wrong So Long It Feels Like Right

More Info Borrow

By Walter Mosley. From Mulholland Books.

★★★★☆ (27 reviews)

Joe King Oliver's beloved Grandma B has found a tumor, and at her age, treatment is high-risk. She's lived life fully and without regrets, and now has only a single, dying wish: to see her long-lost son. King has been estranged from his father, Chief Odin Oliver, since he was a young boy. He swore to never speak to the man again when he was taken away in handcuffs.

When Stars Light the Sky

More Info Borrow

By Elizabeth Camden. From Bethany House Publishers.

★★★★☆ (105 reviews)

Inga Klein's carefree life in New York takes a dramatic turn when she sails for Berlin, Germany, to serve as the secretary for America's ambassador. Amid the glamour of life at the embassy, she continually finds herself at odds with the straitlaced and imposing Benedict Kincaid, the diplomatic chief of staff who harbors deep misgivings toward the German-born Inga.

As Europe hurtles toward World War I, Benedict's determination to keep America out of the conflict adds to the already tense atmosphere. Despite their relentless sparring, Inga and Benedict succeed in keeping the embassy afloat through one crisis after another.

Worm Makes a Sandwich

More Info Borrow

By Brianne Farley. From G.P. Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers.

★★★★☆ (2 reviews)

A sweetly humorous picture book about composting, told from the point of view of a worm.

Meet Worm. He might be little. He might have no hands. But Worm would love to make a sandwich, just for you!

To get started he'll need just one thing: garbage! Delicious, delectable garbage like apple cores and mushy grapes, broccoli bottoms and carrot tops, sad celery, and drippy cucumbers. Worm and his friends eat the garbage. And then they do what everyone does after they eat garbage. They poop!

Happy Mother's Day from the Crayons

More Info Borrow

By Drew Daywalt. From Philomel Books.

★★★★☆

In a wonderful celebration of Mother's Day, the hilarious crayons from the #1 New York Times bestselling The Day the Crayons Quit love their moms--and mother figures in their lives--so much, they wrote a book about it!

Red Crayon loves his mom because she works extra hard, especially on the holidays. Yellow and Orange Crayons love their grandma who has been like a mom to them. And White Crayon loves his mom a ton, even if he can't always see her.

Waiting for the Long Night Moon

More Info Borrow

By Amanda Peters. From Catapult.

★★★★☆ (53 reviews)

From the bestselling author of The Berry Pickers

In her debut collection of short fiction, Amanda Peters describes the Indigenous experience from an astonishingly wide spectrum in time and place—from contact with the first European settlers, to the forced removal of Indigenous children, to the present-day fight for the right to clean water

In this intimate collection, Amanda Peters melds traditional storytelling with beautiful, spare prose to describe the dignity of the traditional way of life, the humiliations of systemic racism and the resilient power to endure.

Hope in a Jar

More Info Borrow

By Deborah Marcero. From G.P. Putnam's Sons Books for Young Readers.

★★★★☆ (4 reviews)

In this companion to the acclaimed and bestselling picture books In a Jar and Out of a Jar, a little bunny and his friends collect their hopes and dreams for the future in jars.

Llewellyn the bunny and his friends dream of many things. Some of their dreams are small, like learning to ice skate, visiting a friend, or acting in the school play. And some of their dreams are big, like going to the moon, or becoming a ballet dancer or a wildlife photographer. Their dreams feel so precious that the bunnies place them in jars for safekeeping.

Carving Shadows into Gold

More Info Borrow

By Brigid Kemmerer. From Bloomsbury YA.

★★★★☆ (204 reviews)

Dangerous magic. Fateful choices. Broken promises. The spellbinding series by New York Times bestselling author Brigid Kemmerer continues.

The King's Courier Tycho has made a treacherous bargain. Now beholden to the magical scavenger who saved King Gray's life, one false move could end everything.

Jax escaped his life in Briarlock and traveled with Tycho to Emberfall. But life outside his small village brings unexpected challenges--and unlikely adversaries.

After years of hating the royal family and their magic, Callyn never expected to be at the Queen's side, with magic on her fingertips.

Lola

More Info Borrow

By Karla Arenas Valenti. From Knopf Books for Young Readers.

★★★★☆ (22 reviews)

A simmering tale of magic, adventure, and the extraordinary bond between a brother and sister who'd journey to the ends of the Earth to save each other. From the acclaimed author of Lotería comes a heartfelt story rooted in Mexican magical realism.

Ten-year-old Lola has always been touched by magic. In her Mexico City home, built around a towering tree, she is accustomed to enchanted blooms that change with the seasons, a sandbox that spits out mysterious treasures, and mischievous chaneques that scuttle about unseen by all but her.

Everything We Never Had

More Info Borrow

By Randy Ribay. From Kokila.

★★★★☆ (315 reviews)

From the author of the National Book Award finalist Patron Saints of Nothing comes an emotionally charged, moving novel about four generations of Filipino American boys grappling with identity, masculinity, and their fraught father-son relationships.

Watsonville, 1930. Francisco Maghabol barely ekes out a living in the fields of California. As he spends what little money he earns at dance halls and faces increasing violence from white men in town, Francisco wonders if he should've never left the Philippines.

Happy Father's Day from the Crayons

More Info Borrow

By Drew Daywalt. From Philomel Books.

In a wonderful celebration of Father's Day, the hilarious crayons from the #1 New York Times bestselling The Day The Crayons Quit love their dads--and father figures in their lives--so much, they wrote a book about it!

Red Crayon loves his dad because he draws the most perfect hearts. Green crayon loves his grandad, who has a real green thumb. And Purple crayon appreciates his mom on Father's Day, even if she colors outside the lines.

Hap-Pea Easter
